

Requirements for Acknowledging NIH-Supported Research

According to NIH grants policy, all grantee publications, including:

- research publications
- press releases
- other publications or documents about research that is funded by NIH must include the following two statements:

1. A specific acknowledgment of NIH grant support, such as:

"Research reported in this [publication/press release] was supported by the National Institute of General Medical Sciences (NIGMS) of the National Institutes of Health under award number P20GM103638."

2. A disclaimer that says:

"The content is solely the responsibility of the authors and does not necessarily represent the official views of the National Institutes of Health."
